Notes for Ezekiel Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

Probably named for Aaron's older brother.

Birth: baptismal record from First Congregational Church, Norwich, CT. Letter (8/1/74, from Elizabeth Knox (Sec'y & Curator of the new London Historical Society) states Aaron and Ezekiel were born in Norwich CT. Letter (7/18/74, also Knox) says New London itself, in 1708, had 249 male inhabitants. No regular census, but Norwich had 174 males (Colchester wasn't separate at that time). There were maybe half that many males in 1670.

Ezekiel Chapman married Jerusha Lee Dec 14, 1768, he being "of Colchester," (also New London County, just to the west of Lebanon.

Lived (from children's birth places): Lebanon in 1774; Springfield MA 1776; Westfield 1780-1785; Argyle NY 1789.

1777, 1 May, enlisted in Revolutionary War for 3 yrs, was an armorer, had a pension.

Notes for Jerusha Lee:

[Chapman.FTW]

Chapman Family Bible (called Zenas, #2) gives her birth date as May 26, 1749. This Bible was printed in 1810, so this info was not original. Thus her correct birth date may be May 23 as given in the Arnolds Copy of Vital Statistics (in a letter from the Lebanon Town Clerk to MM. This letter also gives her parents as Israel and Dorothy Lee.

Children of Ezekiel Chapman and Jerusha Lee are:

i. Lebanon is 7 mi NE of Colchester. Anna d. betw 1803-1812

Second wife: Penelope Westcott (from whom descent). Is there a fourth child from this marriage, an Emeline? We have no Bible records to show it, but it is odd that the 1825 Census says there were 2 girls under 16! One would have been Nancy, age 13, but who was the other??

1797, 6 Mar, CT deed: Zenas bought for 55 pounds a dwelling house with barn and blacksmith's shop in Lebanon (Zenas 27 yrs, married 3 yrs, Charles & Jabez born).

Census 1855: retired, land-owner, living with D.W. & Nancy, so the above must have been #106, in which Nancy Pier and Daniel W. Chapman lived. Zenas was then 84 yrs old (he d 8 Jun '55 at 85, having lived w. Penelope 43 years).

Obituary in Freeman's Journal, June 15, 1855: DIED in this village on the 8th instant, Mr. ZENAS CHAPMAN, in the 86th year of his age. Mr. C. had been a resident of this town for a period of 54 years and was a most exemplary and worthy citizen.

Notes for Anna Randol:

[Chapman.FTW]

Anna Randol must have d. after 1803, the birth of Katherine Chapman, before 24 Jan 1812, when Zenas m Penelope. Probably Anna's mother and father were John Randal and Kathrine Lamb m 27 Oct 1768 in Norwich- Bozrah (Bailey: Bk V, p 55)

16 ii. Tracy Chapman, born April 17, 1774 in Lebanon, New London County, CT; died June 23, 1856 in Prob Wolcott, Wayne County NY; married Polly Rosier.

iii. Charles Lee Chapman<sup>83,84</sup>, born March 30, 1776 in Springfield, Hampshire County, Mass<sup>85,86</sup>; died Bef. 1839<sup>87,88</sup>

Notes for Charles Lee Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

His father, Ezekiel, enlisted 1 May 1777, residence W. Springfield.

Charles must have died before 1839, as he is not mentioned in Zenas' application for remainder of Jerusha's pension. See Ltr Chap/NY/III 7-b

Could he have been in War of 1812? He'd have been 36 yrs. There are 2 Charles in NY Militia: Dutton's 2nd, and Smith's 140th Reg'ts.

iv. Nancy Chapman<sup>88</sup>, born October 29, 1780 in Westfield, Hampshire County, Mass<sup>89,90</sup>; died January 28, 1858<sup>91,92</sup>; married Freeborn Austin, Sr; born August 28, 1778<sup>93,94</sup>; died July 11, 1870 in West Frankfort, Herkimer County, New York<sup>94</sup>.

Notes for Nancy Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

Nancy was born after Ezekiel's return from Military Service. M. Freeborn Austin.

Was in Frankfort (abt 8 miles N of Mohawk), Herkimer Co NY in 1839 at Jerusha's death. See Letter re Heirs of Jerusha, CHAP/NY/III 7-b.

Found her death date on RootsWeb 8/2/00: James Hartigan. e-mail jhartig1@twcny.rr.com

Notes for Freeborn Austin, Sr:

[Chapman.FTW]

8/2/00 Found his birth and death date thru RootsWeb search (James Hartigan, e-mail address: jhartig1@twcny.rr.com. Also 8/3/00 found some info on the Herkimer web page. In the 1869-70 Business Directory for Herkimer there were several Austins, 2 Freeborns, on farmer w 1 1/2 acres, mailing address Utica, and Freeborn Sr, farmer 50 acres, address also Utica. Also from History of Herkimer Co NY (George A. Hardin, Syracuse 1893) in Family Sketches section about Henry Austin, b in town of Schuyler, NY 1802, son of Freeborn Austin (must be the 2nd son, b 1801). Freeborn was in War of 1812

Laura Perkins also answered my query on Herkimer page (she is a contributing editor): From Freeborn Austin Family Record, copied by Edith Batsford Swancott NSDAR #164796, March 1932, list of 11 children, and marriage in RI, which latter may be incorrect.

v. Warham Chapman<sup>94</sup>, born March 19, 1783 in Westfield, Hampshire County, Massachusetts<sup>95,96</sup>; died September 13, 1820 in Nelson, Madison County, New York<sup>97,98</sup>; married Thankful; born Bef. 1785<sup>98</sup>; died Unknown<sup>98</sup>.

Notes for Warham Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

Source: Eleanor Buchanan:

1805, June, Warham Chapman of Marcellus, NY bought 50 acres of Lot 43 in Marcellus by mortgage from Philip Van Courtland for $167.50. He paid off the mortgage in 1806.

1810 Census Warham listed.

1812, Feb, Warham and Thankful Chapman sold that land in to Jude Comstock who lived next to Tracy's in-laws in 1810 census. The 1812 deed names Warham Chapman of Nelson, Madison County NY.

1820, he died, intestate and in debt, leaving wife Thankful, and 3 children. On 27 Apr 1822 (probate??)

the children were recorded as Zenas L., age abt 14 1/2, Julia Ann 10 yrs 9 mos and Louisa Caroline 3 yrs. By this date, widow Thankful had m. and Eber or Ebn Lindsley. More information about his debts, inventory and sale of property is in File #351, Surrogate Court, Madison County Ny (1820-1823). LDS Film 425301.

vi. Abel Chapman<sup>98</sup>, born October 11, 1785 in Westfield, Hampshire County, Mass<sup>99,100</sup>

Notes for Abel Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

Zenas states Abel was in Saratoga when Jerusha d in 1839. See Letter, CHAP/NY/III 7-b.

vii. Ezekiel L. Chapman<sup>100</sup>, born August 24, 1789 in Argyle, Washington County, NY<sup>101,102</sup>; met Olive Wallace.

Notes for Ezekiel L. Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

Argyle Township, Washington County, included Argyle, N. Argyle, S. Argyle, and is East of Ft. Edward, Hudson Falls, and N. of Saratoga (it is close to the Vermont border, 45-50 miles as the crow flies from Athens, Windham Co Vt, where there is an Ezekiel Chatman in the 1790 Census) is an incorporated village, township population 2,415. Zip 12809. Hudson Falls is the county seat of WA County.

Barber: Abstracts of Wills of Otsego Co.* 1794-1850, Vol 2, being Liber E-H, 1 & 2. Bk E 1834-1824, p. 68 (actually p 70, 60 in index) Dec 27-1813-Mar 4 1814, has Ezekial Chapman (can this be Zenas' brother?), of Maryland (a southern township of Otsego Co), and mentions Olive Wallace (the woman with whom he has co-habited ), sons Aron, Ezekial, David, Daughter Esther Fuller, Eunice G. wife of Samuel Chapman. Executrix: Olive Wallace. Witnesses Daniel Olmstead, Eliphalet Mead, Stephen Olmstead.

In Zenas' application for his share of Jerusha's pension in 1839, at her death, Ezekiel is given as of Warren, so perhaps the above Ezekial (in will) is from another Chapman line. There is a Warren County, No. of Glens Falls, of which Lake George is the county seat, but it is more likely that Warren Township, Herkimer County, pop 978, just above Springfield Center, Otsego Co, is meant in the applications.

Notes for Olive Wallace:

[Chapman.FTW]

"the woman with whom I have co-habited" says this Ezekiel's will.

Notes for Joseph B Chapman:

[Chapman.FTW]

There has long been a misconception that this Joseph was descended from William of New London. See Chapman Family Genealogy, F.W. Chapman, Hartford, 1865, p.268, which has the WRONG Joseph. It says he was a mariner.

Mather: Refugees of 1776, p.291: "Joseph removed to Norwich, Conn. where he died 10 June 1725." [perhaps the wrong Joseph again?]

But see Philip Chapman Ellsworth's meticulous research separating this Joseph from the Joseph descended from Edward of Ipswich MA in Chapman Chatter #27, Fall 1991.

On Feb 5 1707 Joseph's intention of marriage was recorded in Ipswich (Gil Alford: Marriage date 5 Apr 1707). He and Marcy moved to New London township betw 1707 and 1714. Marcy's mother & father moved to Norwich or New London in 1707. Joseph was admitted to Norwich by public vote in 1715. Was said to be a mariner (Norwich is inland on the Thames, a navigable tidal waterway). In 1718 he joined the First Congregational Church of Norwich.

The two descending Chapman lines from Edward and William were in the Norwich-Colchester area and must have met.

1. Marcy's sister Katherine married Daniel Chapman, a son of John Chapman of Colchester and grandson of William Chapman of New London (marriage recorded in Colchester), and

2. After Joseph's death (1725), Marcy married William Chapman Junr (recorded in a Colchester land record). William was the son of John Chapman of Colchester, the eldest son of William of New London. No doubt William and Marcy met through her sister Katherine. Were there other connections between these two lines?

Notes for Gabriel Mead:

One of the first of the family to emigrate to this country was Gabriel Mead, Sometimes called 'Goodman' Mead, who came in the ship 'Elizabeth' in April 1635, from Kent Co. England, with his wife Johanna Bates. They settled in Dorchester, MA, where he died 1666 leaving his wife and six children. -Mead Clark Genealogy.

The Mass. Mead family is descended from Gabriel Mead who was born in 1587, died 12, 1666, aged seventy-nine years. He is probably married twice, his second wife being Johanna, the daughter of James Bates. The latter was born in 1582, died 1655, and sailed from England in the ship Elizabeth, Capt. Stagg, Apr. 1635, and it is said his son-in-law, Gabriel [or Goodman] Mead, was in the same vessel. Richard Bates [son] lived at Lydd in Co. Kent, England, from whence the family is supposed to have come. - Spencer Mead, p 123.

The CT Mead family is decended from William Mead, who is said to have been a brother of Gabriel [ Goodman ] Mead, the ancestor of the Mass. family, and it is supposed that these two brothers with their families sailed from Lydd, Co. Kent, England, in the ship Elizabeth, Capt. Stagg, April 1635, for Mass. Bay Colony, where they arrived in the summer of that year. William seems to have settled at Wethersfield, CT in 1641, and on Dec. 7, 1641 was assigned a homelot and five acres of land at the latter place, as appears from the Stamford Town Records.

Notes for Thomas Mede:

Thomas Meade migrated from Somerset during the reign of Henry VI [before 1471] and settled in Clavering, Essex. He left a will dated 1504 in Prerogative Canterbury Court. In his will he names his brother William Mede, his wife Johanna, and his four sons, Richard, Thomas, Robert and John.

Thomas's descendants lived in Clavering, Elmdon, Berden, Great Easton, and Chrishall, which are all within about ten miles of each other in northwest Essex.

His descendant, William Mead, Migrated to America in 1635. In 1780, William's descendant Enoch Mead built a house and named it Elmdon.

The information here is based mainly on wills, which are documented separately for each of the people involved, and on Visitations. The Visitation of Essex, 1634 [No 1] shows the descendants of Thomas Meade, son of Thomas Meade of Claveing, d. 1504. The Visitation of Essex 1634 [No 2] shows the descendants of John Meade of Great Easton, d 1570. The Visitation of Essex 1634 [No 3] shows the descendants of Edward Meade of Berden d. 1577. The Visitations of Cambridgeshire 1575 and 1619 show the descendants of John Meade of Great Easton, d. 1565. The Visitation of Essex 1664-1668 shows the descendants of Richard Meade of Berden, d. 1611.

St. Thomas Mede is probably the father of Thomas Mede of Somerset, who went to Clavering, Essex in about 1470 and died there in 1504. The connection between Sir Thomas Mede of Wraxall, Somerset, and Thomas in Clavering, Essex, is based on three pieces of circumstantial evidence.

First, the names. There were three generations of Thomas Medes in Somerset and five or six generations of Thomas Medes or Meades in Essex.

Second, the Coat of Arms. Several Meades in Essex used the same coat of arms: a chevron ermine between three trefoils slipped argent.

Third, Clavering. The niece of Thomas Mede of Wraxall, Isabel Mede, married Maurice de Bekeley. Maurice was related to Elizabeth de Berkeley [his father's first cousin], who owned the manor of Clavering Essex. The manor passed from her to her husband, Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, and from his to his son-in-law, Richard Neville, Earl of Warwick. Thomas Mede of Clavering moved to Clavering, Essex, in about 1470, dying there in 1504. Possibly he was rewarded with land for supporting the Berkeley family at the Battle of Nibley Green, or for supporting the Earl of Warwick in 1470, or simply to help out a cousin.- from Vance Mead webpage on Mead HX [NY 160]

Children of Thomas Mede, Sir are:

- 17920 i. Thomas Mede, born Abt. 1450 in Somerset, England; died 1504 in Clavering, Essex, England; married Johannan Unknown.
- ii. William Mede, born Abt. 1450 in Somerset, England; married Jane Unknown.

Generation No. 17

71680. Thomas Mede, born 1380 in Fayland, Wraxall, Somerset, England; died 1455 in St.Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, England. He was the son of 143360. Thomas atte Mede.

Notes for Thomas Mede:

According to William Barrett in "History and antiquities of the city of Bristol." Thomas Mede of Wraxall is the decendent { probably great grandson } of Nicholas atte Mede [ born about 1290 ], who was assessed for taxes in Somerset in 1327/28. Sir Thomas Mede was his son, - Vance Mead webpage on Mead HX [NY 160 ] .

Children of Thomas Mede are:

- 35840 i. Thomas Mede, Sir, born Abt. 1410 in England; died Abt. 1475 in St.Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, England.

ii. Philip Mede, born Abt. 1415; died Abt. 1475 in St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, England; married Isabelle.

Notes for Philip Mede:

Philip Mede was the mayor of Bristol three times and once the MP for Bristol. His is said to have been descended from the Mede family of Wraxall, Somerset. Master John Mede, Rector of Wraxall, Somerset, witnessed Philip's will. In 1457 Philip Mede bought a messuage, 10 acres land, 70 acres pasture, 10 acres meadow at Rolveston near Banwell, Somerset.

Brass rubbing in Ashmolean Museum, Oxford.

Parish: St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol

Inscription: Philip Mede Esq. and 2 wives

Coat of arms: Gules a chevron ermine between three trefoils slipped argent.

From the verger of St. Mary Redcliffe:

"The tomb of the Mede family is aprox. 10 ft high by 18 ft by 3 ft. It contains in one compartment the effigies of Thomas and his wife and in the other a brass of Philip and his two wives. This rectangular brass shows Philip kneeling with his wife. Philip's helmet is seen in front of him leaving his head uncovered and showing his long hair. Philip Mede's daughter married Maurice the younger brother of William 12th Lord Berkeley. Philip also supported with his men the Berkeley family at the last private battle fought on English soil at Nibley Green in 1470.

Philip Mede was Mayor of Bristol in 1459, 1462 and 1469. Thomas was also Mayor but is dressed in merchant clothing and as he had the tomb built with its fine carving I suppose he managed to gain the family wealth."- from the Vance Mead webpage on Mead HX [NY 160]

Generation No. 18

From the Berkeley Manuscripts.

Possibly the Thomas atte Mead who was the executor of the will of Joan Seys of the parish of St. Augustine in Bristol, 1395. - Mead HX [ NY 160 ]

Child of Thomas atte Mede is:

71680 i. Thomas Mede, born 1380 in Fayland, Wraxall, Somerset, England; died 1455 in St. Mary Redcliffe, Bristol, England.
